

AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF ADVANTAGE ENERGY LTD.

CHARTER

I. PURPOSE

The primary function of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors (the "Board of Directors" or "Board") of Advantage Energy Ltd. ("Advantage" or the "Corporation") in fulfilling its responsibilities by reviewing: the financial reports and other financial information provided by Advantage to any governmental body or the public; Advantage's systems of internal controls regarding finance, accounting, legal compliance and ethics that management and the Board have established; and Advantage's auditing, accounting and financial reporting processes generally. Consistent with this function, the Audit Committee should endeavour to encourage continuous improvement of, and should endeavour to foster adherence to, the Corporation's policies, procedures and practices at all levels. In performing its duties, the external auditor is to report directly to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee's primary objectives are:

1. To assist directors meet their responsibilities (especially for accountability) in respect of the preparation and disclosure of the financial statements of the Corporation and related matters;
2. To provide better communication between directors and external auditors;
3. To assist the Board's oversight of the auditor's qualifications and independence;
4. To assist the Board's oversight of the credibility, integrity and objectivity of financial reports;
5. To strengthen the role of the outside directors by facilitating discussions between directors on the Audit Committee, management and external auditors;
6. To assist the Board's oversight of the performance of the Corporation's internal audit function and independent auditors;
7. To assist the Board's oversight of the Corporation's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements;
8. To review the risks that may affect Advantage and the risk management policies and procedures of the Corporation.

II. COMPOSITION

The Audit Committee shall be comprised of three or more directors as determined by the Board of Directors, none of whom are members of management of Advantage and all of whom are "independent" (as such term is defined in (a) National Instrument 52-110 — Audit Committees ("NI 52-110")). All of the members of the Audit Committee shall be "financially literate". The Board of Directors has adopted the definition for "financial literacy" used in NI 52-110, which definition is set forth in Schedule "A" attached hereto. Audit Committee members may enhance their familiarity with finance and accounting by participating in educational programs conducted by the Corporation or an outside consultant. In addition, at least one member of the Audit Committee must have accounting or related financial management expertise, as the Corporation's Board of Directors interprets such qualification in its business judgment.

The members of the Audit Committee shall be elected by the Board of Directors at the annual organizational meeting of the Board of Directors and remain as members of the Audit Committee until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. Unless a Chair is elected by the full Board of Directors, the members of the Audit Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Audit Committee membership.

In connection with the election of the members of the Audit Committee, the Board will determine whether any proposed nominee for the Audit Committee serves on the Audit Committees of more than three public companies. To the extent that any proposed nominee of the Corporation serves on the Audit Committees of more than three public companies, the Board will make a determination as to whether such simultaneous services would impair the ability of such member to effectively serve on the Corporation's Audit Committee and will disclose such determination in the Corporation's annual information circular.

III. MEETINGS

The Audit Committee shall meet at least four times annually, or more frequently as circumstances dictate. As part of its job to foster open communication, the Audit Committee should meet at least annually with management, internal auditors (if any) and the independent auditors in separate executive sessions to discuss any matters that the Audit Committee or each of these groups believe should be discussed privately. In addition, the Audit Committee or at least its Chair should meet with the independent auditors and management quarterly to review the Corporation's financials consistent with Section IV.4 below. The Audit Committee should also meet with management and independent auditors on an annual basis to review and discuss annual financial statements and the management's discussion and analysis of financial conditions and results of operations. Attached as Schedule "B" is an example of an annual meeting schedule/agenda.

A quorum for meetings of the Audit Committee shall be a majority of its members, and the rules for calling, holding, conducting and adjourning meetings of the Audit Committee shall be the same as those governing the Board.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

To fulfill its responsibilities and duties, the Audit Committee shall endeavour to:

Documents/Reports Review

1. Review and update this Charter periodically, at least annually, as conditions dictate.
2. Review and recommend to the Board the organization's annual and interim financial statements, MD&A, earnings press releases and review any reports or other financial information submitted to any governmental body or the public, including any certification, report, opinion or review rendered by the independent auditors.
3. Review the reports to management prepared by the independent auditors and management's responses.

4. Review with financial management and the independent auditors the quarterly financial statements prior to their filing or prior to the release of earnings. The Chair of the Audit Committee may represent the entire Audit Committee for purposes of this review.
5. Review significant findings during the year, including the status of previous significant audit recommendations.
6. Periodically assess the adequacy of procedures for the review of corporate disclosure that is derived or extracted from the financial statements.
7. Periodically discuss guidelines and policies to govern the processes by which the Chief Executive Officer and senior management assess and manage the Corporation's exposure to risk.
8. Report regularly to the Board any issues that arise with respect to the quality or integrity of the Corporation's financial statements, compliance with legal or regulatory requirements, performance and independence of the Corporation's auditors, or performance of the internal audit function.
9. To prepare, if required, an Audit Committee report to be included in the Corporation's annual information form.
10. Preparing an annual performance evaluation of the Audit Committee.
11. At least annually, obtaining and reviewing the report by the independent auditors describing the Corporation's internal quality control procedures, any material issues raised by the most recent interim quality-control review, or peer review, of the Corporation or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and any steps to deal with any such issues.

Independent Auditors

12. Recommend to the Board the external auditors to be nominated for appointment by the shareholders.
13. Approve the compensation of the external auditors.
14. On an annual basis, the Audit Committee should review and discuss with the auditors all significant relationships the auditors have with the Corporation to determine the auditors' independence. In addition, the Audit Committee will ensure the rotation of the lead audit partner every seven years and, in order to ensure continuing auditor independence, consider the rotation of the audit firm itself.
15. Review and, as appropriate, resolve any material disagreements between management and the independent auditors and review, consider and make a recommendation to the Board regarding any proposed discharge of the auditors when circumstances warrant.
16. When there is to be a change in auditors, review the issues related to the change and the information to be included in the required notice to securities regulators of such change.

17. Periodically consult with the independent auditors, without the presence of management, about internal controls and the fullness and accuracy of the organization's financial statements.
18. Oversee the establishment of an internal audit function.
19. Periodically assess the Corporation's internal audit function, including Corporation's risk management processes and system of internal controls.
20. Review the audit scope and plan of the independent auditor.
21. Oversee the work of the external auditors engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an auditor's report or performing other audit, review or attest services for Advantage.
22. Pre-approve the completion of any non-audit services by the external auditors and determine which non-audit services the external auditor is prohibited from providing. The Audit Committee may delegate to one or more members of the Audit Committee authority to pre-approve non-audit services in satisfaction of this requirement and if such delegation occurs, the pre-approval of non-audit services by the Audit Committee member to whom authority has been delegated must be presented to the Audit Committee at its first scheduled meeting following such pre-approval. The Audit Committee shall be entitled to adopt specific policies and procedures for the engagement of non-audit services if:
 - (a) the pre-approval policies and procedures are detailed as to the particular service;
 - (b) the Audit Committee is informed of each non-audit service; and
 - (c) the procedures do not include delegation of the Audit Committee's responsibilities to management.

The Audit Committee will satisfy the pre-approval requirement set forth in this paragraph 22 if:

- (a) the aggregate amount of all non-audit services that were not pre-approved is reasonably expected to constitute no more than 5% of the total amount of fees paid by Advantage and its subsidiary entities to the auditors during the fiscal year in which the services are provided;
 - (b) Advantage or a subsidiary entity, as the case may be, did not recognize the services as non-audit services at the time of the engagement;
 - (c) the services are promptly brought to the attention of the Audit Committee and approved, prior to completion of the audit, by the Audit Committee or by one or more of its members to whom authority to grant such approvals has been delegated by the Audit Committee; and
23. Review, set and approve hiring policies relating to staff of current and former auditors.

Financial Reporting Processes

24. In consultation with the independent auditors, annually review the integrity of the organization's financial reporting processes, both internal and external.
25. In consultation with the independent auditors, consider annually the quality and appropriateness of the Corporation's accounting principles as applied in its financial reporting.
26. Consider and approve, if appropriate, major changes to the Corporation's auditing and accounting principles and practices as suggested by the independent auditors or management.
27. Review risk management policies and procedures of Advantage (i.e., litigation and insurance).

Process Improvement

28. Request reporting to the Audit Committee by each of management and the independent auditors of any significant judgments made in the management's preparation of the financial statements and the view of each group as to appropriateness of such judgments.
29. Following completion of the annual audit, review separately with each of management and the independent auditors any significant difficulties encountered during the course of the audit, including any restrictions on the scope of work or access to required information.
30. Review any significant disagreements among management and the independent auditors in connection with the preparation of the financial statements.
31. Review with the independent auditors and management the extent to which changes or improvements in financial or accounting practices, as approved by the Audit Committee, have been implemented. (This review should be conducted at an appropriate time subsequent to implementation of changes or improvements, as decided by the Audit Committee.)
32. Conduct and authorize investigations into any matters brought to the Audit Committee's attention and within the Audit Committee's scope of responsibilities. The Audit Committee shall be empowered to retain and to approve compensation for any independent counsel and other professionals to assist in the conduct of any investigation.
33. Review the systems that identify and manage principal business risks.
34. Establish a procedure for:
 - the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Corporation regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters; and
 - the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of Advantage of concerns regarding questionable accounting matters, auditing matters and matters set forth in Advantage's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics; which procedure shall be set forth in a "whistle blower program" to be adopted by the Audit Committee in connection with such matters.

Ethical and Legal Compliance

35. Establish, review and update periodically a Code of Ethical Conduct and ensure that management has established a system to enforce this code.
36. Review management's monitoring of the Corporation's compliance with the organization's Code of Ethical Conduct.
37. In consultation with the auditors, consider the review system established by management regarding the Corporation's financial statements, reports and other financial information disseminated to governmental organizations and the public in the context of the applicable legal requirements.
38. On at least an annual basis, review with the Corporation's auditors or counsel, as appropriate, any legal matters that could have a significant impact on the organization's financial statements, the Corporation's compliance with applicable laws and regulations and inquiries received from regulators or government agencies.
39. Review with the organization's counsel legal compliance matters including the trading policies of securities.

Other

40. Perform any other activities consistent with this Charter, Advantage's by-laws and governing law, as the Audit Committee or the Board of Directors deems necessary or appropriate.
41. In connection with the performance of its responsibilities as set forth above, the Audit Committee shall have the authority to engage outside advisors and to pay outside auditors and advisors.

This Charter was originally approved by the Board on April 30, 2002 and amended in April 2003, April 2004, June 2005, August 2005, October, 2005, September, 2009, March, 2013, February 7, 2019 and February 27, 2020.
